

The Maryland Comptroller's Tax BULLETIN

September 2020

Sharing Maryland's Virtual State Fair

The Maryland State Fair marks the end of summer, but Covid-19 has forced the cancellation of most events. You can still tune in virtually to some of the activities they have planned and visit our social media pages to enjoy visions of past fairs.

---

Unclaimed Property

Have you searched the unclaimed property database lately? Comptroller Franchot is waiting to 'match' you with lost monies that are rightfully yours!

---

Get Counted, Complete the Census

It only takes a few minutes to complete the census online, by mail or phone. It is critically important to respond as the results help determine how billions of dollars in federal funding flow into states and communities. It also guides the Congressional apportionment and state legislative redistricting process. The census is available in 13 different languages, so don't wait. Data collection ends Sept. 30.

The Student Loan Debt Relief Clock is Ticking

Applications are due September 15 for Maryland taxpayers who have incurred at least $20,000 in undergraduate and/or graduate student loan debt. Apply today!

---

Stay connected with the Comptroller of Maryland:

